Teltscher Trophy
Hosted by the Northern Ireland Bridge Union

La Mon Hotel & Country Club
Castlereagh, Belfast
20 - 22 May 2022

The Teltscher Trophy Brief History

The Senior Camrose was inaugurated in 2008 when Patrick Jourdain persuaded Bernard Teltscher to sponsor the event for the first five years.

Each nation provided a team and Bernard was allowed a team of his own, known variously as "Patron's Team" "England 2" and "Great Britain". The early matches were organised by Sandra Claridge in Oxford and featured Tony Priday in the Patron's team.

Bernard in fact sponsored the event for six years. Then sponsors from the home nations stepped in starting with Northern Ireland who invited Bernard to play one more time as Great Britain. The following year the event was played in Ireland with an Irish sponsor. Then Bernard returned for one more appearance as English sponsor in 2016.

Bernard's team won the weekend twice. However, since they did not represent a Home Nation, the team was not allowed to 'own' the Trophy. On both occasions Scotland finished second and were declared Senior Camrose winners.

Since 2017 there has been a second team from the home nation but the tradition of sponsorship has faded and the format of the event is very similar to the other Camrose series. England has won the Trophy 6 times; Scotland 4 times (twice coming second behind the Patron); Ireland 3 times and Wales once.

Many thanks to Liz Magowan for providing the above information. Congratulations to Liz on being appointed Chairperson of Bridge Great Britain (BGB).

The Teams

Northern Ireland

Alan Sharp & Brian McDowell; Diane & David Greenwood; Michael Coffey & John Lavery; NPC Alan Hill

Alan Sharp & Brian McDowell

Alan taught history at Ulster University for forty years, retiring as Provost of its Coleraine campus in 2009. He continues to write about peace-making and international diplomacy after the First World War. He was heavily involved with British University sport for over three decades and retains a keen interest in student sport at a local, national and international level. His retirement plans included improving his bridge and depleting his wine cellar, neither has proved particularly successful but, like his daily walks with his wife Jen, Buddy the border terrier and Rosie the retriever, they represent sources of great pleasure. He is a past President of the NIBU and has represented Ulster and Northern Ireland with Brian McDowell and his previous partner, the late Antony Alcock. This will be his fourth Teltscher trophy appearance.

Brian retired many years ago having spent all his life in IT; the last 30 years as Head of Management Information and Director of Computing at Ulster University. His interests are mainly in bridge and wine – he organises Wine Appreciation courses for his local U3A. He also enjoys Nordic walking on beaches and in forests on the beautiful Causeway Coast where he lives. He is Chairman of his local bridge club and has provided assistance to the NIBU by developing a new website and in establishing an infrastructure to facilitate NIBU and its affiliated clubs in providing competitive events during lockdown. He was International Match Manager for NIBU for five years, organising Home International matches hosted by the union. He has played and captained Northern Ireland in Camrose and Teltscher matches over a number of years. Brian lives in Portstewart with his wife of 55 years and has three children and six grandchildren all living in England.

Diane & David Greenwood

Diane is married to David, an ex EBU international player and was previously married to Brian Senior, also an EBU international player. She is a big animal lover and very attached to her rescue greyhound called Joey. She has represented Ireland at Ladies International level on many occasions and has also represented Northern Ireland in the Home International series many times, with many different partners (I wonder why?). Diane has had many interesting jobs including working for 21 years for Ulster Television, water surveyor, teacher in South Africa and EBU teaching course qualified bridge teacher in Northern Ireland at all levels. In her spare time (not much of it) Diane enjoys working as a gardening volunteer at her local park, Antrim Castle Gardens. She is treasurer of this group and they recently were awarded the Queen's Award for Volunteers.

David is a retired Financial Adviser. He has represented Ireland on a number of occasions, and has played in 5 Camrose matches with his wife Diane. His partnership with Rex has been the bedrock of the N Ireland Camrose team for many years. He is the only member of the team to have won the Camrose (albeit playing for England at the time!)

Michael Coffey & John Lavery

Michael recently retired from AIB Group after 47 years' service where he spent most of his career in IT. He has seen the evolution of the PC from the original 286 Technology to the current Virtual Cloud equivalent. A native of Kenmare County Kerry he studied at Trinity College Dublin and also has a Masters Degree from University of Ulster. He moved to Northern Ireland in the late 1970's where he became interested in the game of Bridge thanks to a former bank colleague Aiden Fitzgerald (RIP). He claims to be the only "Kerryman" to represent Northern Ireland in the Camrose, (or any other sport) which he has done on numerous occasions primarily with John Lavery (The Bishop) and more recently with Fergal O'Shea from Co Cork. Michael is also a keen Golfer and is a member of Belvoir Park Golf Club Belfast. He has a keen interest in all sports, Gaelic Football and Rugby to mention a few. Since lock down he has become an avid follower of T20 Cricket.

John has represented Northern Ireland on numerous occasions in both The Camrose and Teltscher all with long time bridge partner Mick. Since retirement He has spent His time looking after His two favourite Paddy's - (His wife Patricia and Bookmaker Paddy Power.) He doesn't tell who gets the most attention.

NPC Alan Hill

Alan, a retired University Lecturer, has been NPC of the Lady Milne team several times in the last few years but this is his first outing with a Teltscher team. However, his association with Home Internationals goes back many years to the days of 'Referees' and he has much experience over the years as a TD (gaining a grade B at the EBL TD course in Antalya). He was Jt. Hon. Sec. of the IBU for several years and has been President of both the NIBU and the IBU. He enjoys reading – mostly thrillers – gardening and watching cricket and rugby. A recent convert to Wordle he also enjoys Killer Sudoku.

NIBU

Michael McFaul & Michael O'Kane; Ian Hamilton & Howard Kent-Webster; Clare Watson & Heather Hill; NPC Harold Curran

Michael McFaul & Michael O'Kane

Michael McFaul is a retired Chief Librarian and present Secretary of the Northern Ireland Bridge Union. He writes a monthly column for the Irish Bridge Journal to which he has contributed many humorous articles over the last 40 years. Michael has played on the team that represented Northern Ireland at the 2014 Commonwealth Bridge event and 2020 Camrose & Teltscher trophies. He has previously acted as NPC for the Teltscher team and Camrose teams.

Michael O'Kane is a retired solicitor from Downpatrick with a keen interest in horseracing. He says he is a past everything in the NIBU but has now opted for an easier life. He has played in the Camrose on a number of occasions.

Ian Hamilton & Howard Kent-Webster

Ian is a retired GP and Occupational Physician living in Belfast. As well as bridge he enjoys cricket, being Fixture Secretary for his club, and a League Secretary for the Northern Cricket Union. He follows England home abroad when he can. He spends a lot of time running NIBU simultaneous pairs, plus other NIBU duties, including being Masterpoint Secretary. He has previously played with Hastings Campbell in the Teltscher, plus has several Camrose caps, with four different partners, including his brother. This is his first outing with Howard.

Although Howard was born in England, he is proud to hold an Irish passport. A retired BP executive living in Exeter Devon, he enjoys playing golf and spending time with his family. Howard started playing bridge at an early age but It is only recently that he has become involved in the game in Northern Ireland. He met his Teltscher partner Ian Hamilton through Ian's brother Willie who is also a member of Howard's local bridge club in Exeter. Ian and Howard have played regularly in competitions in England and Northern Ireland in the last decade. This is Howard's first Teltscher.

Clare Watson & Heather Hill

Clare is happily retired after a working life in Education. Her interests apart from bridge are keeping fit, walking and socialising. She has played many times on the Lady Milne Team however this is her first time playing in the Teltscher. Her partnership with Heather Hill is long standing. Clare is looking forward to playing face to face as bridge is hopefully returning to more normal times.

Heather is a retired Maths teacher who still works for her local exam board both as reviser and team leader for A level maths. Her other interests include travel - to Boise Idaho and Newcastle upon Tyne to spend time with grandchildren, cruising and city breaks in Europe. She also enjoys walking, yoga and doing cryptic crosswords. She has played Lady Milne a number of times with Clare but this is their first Teltscher Trophy. She has been particularly busy this year as she is Chairman of the NIBU.

NPC Harold Curran

Harold graduated from the University of Life and in doing so has acquired a healthy appetite for opposing authority of any kind. He began to compete in bridge during his mid-twenties and enjoyed six very successful years before stopping to spend time with his family and grow his business. Twenty-five years later he came back to the table and thoroughly enjoys indulging his bridge obsession!

Wales

Gary Jones & Paul Lamford; Peter Kaufmann & Alan Stephenson; Gilly Clench & Dave Birt; NPC Simon Gottschalk

Gary Jones & Paul Lamford

Gary, with his son Dafydd, represented Wales in the Camrose home internationals fourteen times between 2001 and 2011, including the first Welsh series victory in 2011. He also played with Dafydd in the 2010 European Championships in Ostend, the 2012 Europeans in Dublin and in the 2002 inaugural Commonwealth Nations Championship held in Manchester, where they won the silver medal, and the NEC Bridge Festival in Yokohama in 2003. During this period he also played in the 2004 Senior Olympiad in Istanbul and the 2006 Senior Europeans in Warsaw, both with Jim Luck.

Since 2013 Gary has represented Wales at ten further Camrose weekends in partnership with Tim Rees, Paul Denning and Paul Lamford. He has played in four further Commonwealth Championships in Melbourne (2006), Delhi (2010), Glasgow (winning the Gold medal in 2014) and the Gold Coast (2018). He also represented Wales in the 2016 European Championships, with the late Patrick Jourdain, in 2018 and 2021 with Paul Lamford and four times in the Teltscher Trophy (Senior Camrose), thrice with Patrick and once with Paul Lamford.

Paul - I learned to play in Haverfordwest Grammar School in Wales, After that I mainly played chess for many years, and competed in four Olympiads and other team events in some exotic places; it was an advantage to be Welsh as I would not have been selected for England. Bridge and backgammon gradually replaced chess, and the former is now my game of choice, partly because my wife Stefanie Rohan also plays and has represented England Women. From time to time I return to backgammon, which Stefanie also plays, and I won the British Championship a couple of times. Bridge successes have been few, with the Singapore Pairs Championship, Monte Carlo Pairs Championship and Chairman's Cup in Sweden the only significant ones. In 2015 I transferred back to Wales and have played a number of internationals with Gary Jones. We have won the Welsh Premier League three times and played Camrose, Senior Camrose and European and Commonwealth Championships.

Away from the bridge table, I compile sports odds, design games, and enjoy travel, classical music (and my wife's concerts), and all sport, particularly horse-racing and football, games and puzzles. I have written a dozen books on games, including a couple on bridge, and have also provided puzzles for The Times and Radio 4.

Peter Kaufmann & Alan Stephenson

Peter - I chose to play Cricket rather than Bridge between 1975 and 2000 despite being told by Imran Khan that I had the wrong lifestyle! I was born and spent most of my life in London pursuing various commercial and property interests.

I was Chairman of Middlesex for several years in the Noughties, winning various National events including Crockfords before moving to North Wales in 2006 to look after my daughter's estate. This is my third Seniors Camrose.

Alan - Having spent a number of occasions as NPC of Wales Teams including Wales' historic Camrose win which happened on home soil in Llandrindrod Wells in 2011, Alan decided to try his hand as a player, being selected to play for the WBU Team in last year's Camrose after finishing as runners up in the pairs trials with Peter Kaufmann. This will be Alans fourth appearance in the Teltscher having played twice previously with Peter and once with Paul Denning. Alan is married to Krista a former Welsh Junior and Lady Milne International, they live near Wrexham. Having taken early retirement a few years ago as well as playing bridge and snooker, Alan spends a fair amount of time on the golf course. A few years ago Alan took on the role of CEO of the Welsh Bridge Union, but found it even harder than working full time.

Gilly Clench & Dave Birt

Gilly is more used to female bridge company, having made twenty appearances in the Lady Milne with almost as many different partners (no one can stand it for long - a testament to David's strength of character) - and just the one win. Most famous (notorious) for rude joke telling and inebriated singing, she is trying to settle down to grow old gracefully, but failing, fortunately. She is currently nursing a broken ankle, gained whilst careering completely out of control down some black run and is encouraged in any dangerous sport with her daughter Mel, who hopes to play more bridge some day when she has time. She knows far more than she should about building materials, plumbing and electrics, due to her little foray into property development, but gone are the days when she could produce a Top B in alt. (that's a high note in singing in case you are wondering).

David is making his fourth Teltscher appearance and the second time with Gilly having previously played together in the 2018 WBU team. He has won most Welsh domestic competitions over the years, many with the late Geoff Evans, including the Welsh Cup, Cambria, Welsh Foursomes, Webber cup, Perry Shield. David will tell you that bridge with Gilly is never boring and always fun as she explores the outer reaches of bidding theory !

David is a Chartered Surveyor now working as a consultant with 4 day weekends and a proper lunch hour but lives only 2 doors down from the office so commuting relatively easy. His wife Anne has decided if you can't beat them then join them and is much enjoying the game. Sadly neither daughter can be persuaded to the joys of bridge but David has hopes for the 4 grandchildren.

Simon Gottschalk NPC

Whilst at university Simon invented the SPECTRUM CLUB bidding system which sadly failed to gain popularity (it was well ahead of its time!). More productively, Simon then spent the next 45 years working in the IT business starting out like so many, in ICL. From the mid 1980's Simon has run his own company spanning a wide variety of roles in and around business systems and software development. Simon (born in Newport, Wales) continued his bridge career at London's Young Chelsea Bridge club (1978-1994), progressing from SPECTRUM CLUB, via ACOL and ROMEX to VIKING PRECISION, and moved to Cowbridge in 1994 with partner Miriam and children Sophie & Danny. Over recent years Simon has been playing an increasing amount of bridge in a variety of locations. In 2021 Simon went as an "EBL Observer" to Iceland, is currently a Welsh "Selector" and on the committee at Cardiff Bridge club. This is Simon's first foray into the dark art of being an NPC.

Ireland

Terry Walsh & Peter Goodman; Ranald Milne & BJ O'Brien; Padraig O'Briain & Micheal O'Briain; NPC Derek Gorman

Terry Walsh & Peter Goodman

Terry, a career Civil Servant, worked as a systems analyst within the computer section of the Department of Finance before moving to the Public Expenditure division, working on Government budgets and Departmental expenditure. He is recently retired, living opposite Christchurch Cathedral and enjoying the amenities of Dublin city centre with his wife Bríd, also a keen bridge player.

Peter is a former Camrose winner with Wales, now living in Dublin with his Irish wife. Peter has won numerous Irish National titles and his other successes include Spring Fours, Crockfords, Tollemarche, Brighton 4* wins.

Ranald Milne & BJ O'Brien

Originally from England, Ranald moved to Dublin for work reasons in the 1980s, and quickly established himself on the local bridge scene. His most notable partnerships have been with Joe MacHale initially, and BJ O'Brien latterly. Known for his calm table presence and an affable and courteous demeanour, Ranald has won all the major national competitions, and has represented Ireland at both Open and Senior levels, including at the D'Orsi Bowl (senior world championships) in China in 2019. He is also a very well-regarded bridge teacher, who has inspired great devotion and loyalty among his large body of students. He and Catherine recently left Dublin for the greener pastures of county Clare, but thus far he has retained his Leinster allegiances.

B.J. likes to play bridge. Since the lockdown he has found several new outlets where he can exercise his hobby - The Gloucestershire league, the Welsh League, the Scottish League, the Northern Ireland League, and the Polish Seniors International.

He won the latest edition of the Scottish League with his Teltscher partner Ranald and Welsh teammates. "It is terrific to have had BBO and even better now with RealBridge where you can see and talk to all at your table, almost like the real thing"

Padraig O'Briain & Micheal O'Briain

Padraig is retired from half a lifetime wrestling with computers. His international bridge career began in 1972 when he played with his brother Micheal in the Junior European Championships in Delft. He played in a number of European Open Team championships with Tomas Roche and Peter Pigot as well as Micheal. He played with Micheal on the first Irish team to win the Camrose in 2005.

Micheal has retired after a career as an actuary in the insurance industry. He lives in Dublin with his wife Marie. Amongst other activities they mind their children's dogs and cat on a regular basis! He plays golf frequently but unfortunately not as well as he would like!

His first international cap was in the Junior European championships in Delft in 1972 partnering his brother Padraig. He has since represented Ireland on many occasions at Junior, Open and more recently Senior levels in the Camrose, Teltscher, European and world events and has been part of winning teams in the Camrose and Teltscher. Bridge has brought him to many interesting places including Turku Finland, Beijing, Chennai India and Wuhan! He looks forward to going to Madeira in 2022 if the Senior European Championship is eventually held!

Derek Gorman NPC

Derek is a recently retired HR Director. He played with Hugh McGann in his early international career, and in many national and international events with Terry Walsh over the last 25 years. With Terry they have enjoyed many national event wins including playing in the European Open Championships a number of years ago.

Derek has also acted as NPC for the Irish Senior Team when they have played in several European and World Championships.

Scotland

Bob McPaul & Sandy Duncan; David Shenkin & Cameron McLatchie; Harry Smith & Roy Bennett; NPC Anne Perkins

Bob McPaul & Sandy Duncan

Bob - this is my second Teltscher Trophy, the first being eight years ago. Interestingly at the same venue. I have a different partner this year who is kind enough to let me make all the errors. I am a retired Civil servant since 2012 but still wake before the alarm clock every day, which, luckily, I have set to mid-day. I first started playing bridge later than most, in 1981 when I was 29. I bumped into my sister at the same bridge class. She went on to marry Barnett Shenkin while I ended up partnering Sandy Duncan.

Sandy first represented Scotland in 1974 and has played in each decade since. He played 3 times for Great Britain with Brian Short. He worked for 10 years in the US and when he returned to Scotland he was surprised to still be third on the SBU master Point list! He is now retired in the Scottish Borders. This is his first cap at Senior level.

David Shenkin & Cameron McLatchie

David is still working as a management consultant with most of his spare time spent either playing bridge or playing golf. He started playing bridge at the age of 13 when he was taught how to play the game by his father who was a Scottish internationalist bridge player. David represented Scotland in the Junior Camrose 6 times (with Cameron McLatchie in 1972 and 1973) and played for the British Junior team in a European teams event in Copenhagen in 1974 winning a bronze medal.

Was NPC of the British team in the Maccabiah Games of 1985, 1989 and 1993 - in each case the team won a medal - and played for the British Team in the Maccabiah Games of 1997 winning a bronze medal.

Cameron started playing bridge while studying law in the mid-1960's at Glasgow University, pairing up initially with Barnett Shenkin, and subsequently with the late Gerald Haase. After university, he paired up with Derek Diamond, and eventually in 1972 with David Shenkin, who has remained his partner for over 50 years. During these early years, he represented Scotland in the Junior Camrose on several occasions, never on the losing side. He started his own business in 1974, and bridge became secondary to work, still playing occasionally with David. On retirement in 2017, he moved to Jersey, further distancing the partnership - until Covid struck. The move to on-line format allowed constant contact, the only obstacles being golf and gardening, and as a result he is back at the bridge table - much to the delight of his wife who now gets the TV to herself.

Harry Smith & Roy Bennett

Harry played in the original Senior Camrose in 2008. This is his fifth appearance in what is now the Teltscher, and the third partnering Roy Bennett. He has also played twice in the Scottish Senior Team in the European Championships and has a Bronze Medal as the npc of the Scottish Senior Team in the European Championships of 2012. He was also npc of that team in the D'Orsi trophy World Championships the following year when the team came a very creditable 4th=, and he went on to captain the Scottish Women's team in the European Championships of 2014.

The 2013 World Championships in Bali started a new career for him, when he and Alex Adamson collaborated in the writing of Scotland's Senior Moment, published in 2014. He and Alex have since produced three further books injecting humour as well as thorough hand analysis into the game with If I Only Had A Heart (2016), Bridge Over The Rainbow (2019), and Double, Double, Toil and Trouble (2020).

Harry is a retired actuary, and lives with his wife, Alison, in Scone near Perth. His daughter lives in Broughty ferry and his twin sons in Idaho and Rio De Janeiro respectively.

Roy - I am Roy Bennett, John Mclarens "mad doctor" I have now been playing bridge for well over 60 years and still make the same mistakes as I did in my 20s only more of them. Getting a bit tired of being the oldest member of any team I play in! Played quite a lot of Camrose but only won it once! My main claim to fame was in my VERY first board in Camrose going down in a dreadful slam even when Mike Hirst led the only card which made it stiff. After an international career involving playing with quite a few "interesting" partners I have now settled down and playing seniors with Harry Smith (only a youngster compared to myself) and really enjoying the game once more. He shouts at me much less than pretty well any of the last lot - all of whom will remain nameless.

Anne Perkins NPC

Anne - I have no bridge claim-to-fame whatsoever other than when a previous President of the SBU cajoled me into taking on the role of Chair of the International Committee because no one else was daft enough to do it. That was 10+ years ago, and despite my best efforts, I've not yet managed to get myself removed from the position.

Previously I've been NPC for our Senior team on several occasions both in this event and at the Europeans, and was NPC for the Online European Open team and the Camrose this year, and about to be in Madeira also after they had no success finding anyone else for that.

Away from the bridge table I enjoy reading, knitting, walking and working through my bucket list of holiday destinations. The latter has not been shortened in the last 2 and a bit years.

England

Patrick Shields & Richard Chamberlain; Gary Hyett & John Holland; Malcolm Pryor & David Kendrick; NPC David Jones

Patrick Shields & Richard Chamberlain

Patrick learned the rudiments of the game as he grew up in Scotland but only got fully hooked when studying in Wales in his twenties. He went on to play bridge for Wales (including in this event with Patrick Jourdain, twice) but now lives in Cheltenham in England and this is his third outing representing English Seniors. He retired over five years ago but has had a full time job in the past two years playing in and organising online bridge events, and is involved in bridge administration at the club, county, regional and national level. His successes include being part of the winning Welsh Camrose team in 2011.

Although Richard lives in an Oxfordshire village under the Uffington White Horse, he has been a regular representing Cheltenham and Gloucestershire for over 40 years. This has included victories in the Tollemache, Pachabo and Garden Cities. Outside of bridge, Richard is a keen golfer and hillwalker, umpires in the Oxfordshire Cricket league and has compiled numerical and word crosswords under the pseudonym Hedgehog. This is Richard's second appearance in the Teltscher Trophy.

Gary Hyett & John Holland

Gary is 69 and lives in South Manchester with his wife Pam. He has two children and two grand children. He is now retired after working in Software Engineering for both the military and civil disciplines. The final part of his career was working as a consultant for (then) Highways Agency specializing in data communications relating to the English and Welsh motorways.

Having learned to play bridge in the 1970's at Manchester University, where he first met his current partner John Holland, he has represented England many times in past Camrose events. This is his first appearance as a senior. The peak of his career was in 1999 when he won the Gold Cup and represented Great Britain at the European Championships in Malta.

John is a Manchester-based bridge professional. He played for the England Open team in 2006 and 2008 with John Armstrong. He had an extremely successful partnership with his late wife, Michelle Brunner, playing together in four Camrose teams. At senior level he has won two World Championships, in 2009 and 2010, plus a European Championship in 2014 partnering Gunnar Hallberg. He was in the team that won the Gold Cup in 2015.

Malcolm Pryor & David Kendrick

Malcolm Pryor has represented England in Seniors events on several occasions. He was a member of the team which won the Silver Medal in the 2019 World Championships held in Wuhan, China. He plays much of his bridge with his wife Karen, they have moved house to Devon. He is the author of several books on trading and is a keen golfer.

David, 73, first played in the Junior Camrose in 1973. He has been on the fringe of the international team ever since. Since he unloaded most of his business interests, and his children have grown and flown, he is a more frequent member of England Seniors' teams. He is promiscuous in his choice of partners for the Senior Camrose. David is playing this weekend with Malcolm Pryor. His previous partners have been Roger Gibbons, Brian Senior, Tony Forrester, Norman Selway, John Holland and he apologises to those whose names temporarily escape him.

David Jones NPC

David - I have captained the England Senior team at both the European and World Championships in Ostend and Wuhan in 2018 and 2019 and also acted as coach to the England Open team in Poland in 2016. At the table I have won a number of English National events.
