Here is a message from Mark Teltscher

Bernard Teltscher (my father) loved playing bridge, and it was nice for him and I to enjoy the same game, playing as partners and teammates. If there is ever a need to expound the virtues of an intergenerational game then you have the evidence in our family. As the players compete in The Teltscher Trophy, Newport, the 16th in the series, I'd like to wish you all good luck, and may the best team win.
